Toronto, Ontario, July 31, 2019 – Quinsam Capital Corporation (CSE: QCA) ("Quinsam" or the "Company") is pleased to announce its quarterly dividend and the repayment of the City View Green mortgage and provide a summary of potential pending liquidity events.

Dividend

The Board of Directors of Quinsam has approved the company's twentieth consecutive quarterly dividend. The dividend is $0.00125 per share ($0.005 per share per year). The distribution will be paid on August 26, 2019 to shareholders of record on August 9, 2019. This dividend will be designated as an "eligible dividend" for Canadian income tax purposes. Future quarterly dividends will be subject to Board approval.

City View Green Holdings Inc. Update

Approximately 18 months ago, Quinsam advanced $1.2 million as a second mortgage on a Brantford industrial building. By making this loan, Quinsam helped to launch City View Green as a cannabis company. As a founding shareholder of City View Green, Quinsam obtained approximately 25 million shares. Quinsam also obtained the right to interest, loan arrangement fees and a profit participation on a sale of the building.

On July 30, City View Green completed a sale/leaseback transaction on the Brantford building. As a result, Quinsam's mortgage on the property was repaid in full in cash. Quinsam also obtained a total of an additional 2,693,460 shares of City View Green as compensation for the interest and other rights referred to above.

"This has been a fabulous transaction for Quinsam" said Roger Dent, CEO. "We have recovered our full cash investment in the company. In addition, we now have received a total of approximately 28 million shares of City View Green that represent the return on our investments over the last 18 months. We note that City View Green has made very considerable progress since we first invested and we look forward to its future progress as well as that of its affiliated Canadian retail initiative, Budd Hutt Inc."

Liquidity Event Announcements

A number of Quinsam's investee companies have announced their intent to go forward with liquidity events in Q3 and Q4/2019. Recent announcements include:

- Molecule has announced its intention to go public through a transaction with Everton Resources.
- CBX Brands (referred to as Hystyle in our earlier disclosure) has announced its intention to go public through a transaction with Leo Acquisitions.
- Frontier Wellness has announced its intention to go public through a transaction with Efficacious Elk Capital.
- Seven Leaf Ventures has signed an LOI to be acquired by Stem Holdings.
- Core Process Solutions (referred to as Critical CO2 in our earlier disclosure) has filed a prospectus to go public.

In all of the these cases, if the liquidity events go forward, Quinsam currently expects the impact on our NAV to be positive.

In addition, the merger of Osoyoos Cannabis and Anahit International is expected to be completed in September. We understand that IMC, Cannivate, Xtraction Services and Theracann are all targeting listings in Q3/2019 or Q4/2019.

“While the cannabis sector has been unsettled in recent weeks, we remain optimistic about the future” said Roger Dent. “The success of liquidity events is never predictable. However, we are hopeful that this package of potential upcoming liquidity events will be accretive to NAV.”
